City's Sewer Plan Advanced In Resolution

Council Prepares Way To Call Vote On Proposition

Placerville's city council prepared the way for an ordinance calling a bond election on the city's proposed sewer main and sewage disposal plant at their meeting Monday night when a resolution was passed declaring that public interest and necessity demand such an improvement.

This is the last legal development prior to fixing a date for a bond election in which the city would raise $41,824 as its share of a project in which the government may furnish 45 per cent, or $34,220 of the total cost as an outright grant.

The city's application for a PWA grant is now before Washington officials and word has come back that the application will stand in more favorable light if the city already has voted a bond issue to carry out its share of the project.

Having voted the bonds, the city is not required to sell them and can drop the entire matter should the government fail to approve the application for a grant.

15 SHIPS HUNT ARMY BOMBER, 2 FLIERS MISSING

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Army authorities disclosed today that a Martin bomber with two men aboard disappeared last night after being sighted less than 15 miles from its base, Hamilton Field, 25 miles north of San Francisco.

Those aboard were Second Lieutenant Herbert E. Kinnier, pilot, and Sergeant Hartley Roberts, observer. Fifteen planes dived away from Hamilton Field this morning to search for the missing craft, which was one of a flight of seven bombers which had been maneuvering over the upper San Joaquin Valley.

The plane was due back at Hamilton Field at 10 o'clock last night. Officers said it was sighted a few minutes previously in the vicinity of Vallejo, less than 15 miles by air line east of Hamilton Field.

RAY L. RILEY IS APPOINTED TO RAIL BOARD

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Three important state appointments, which will give Governor Frank F. Merriam control of the controller's office and the state railroad commission personnel, were announced today.

The shifts: Ray L. Riley, state controller for the past 15 years, was appointed to the state railroad commission.

Ray C. Wakefield, Fresno attorney, was appointed to the state railroad commission.

Harry B. Riley, former state assemblyman and Long Beach city councilman, was appointed controller to succeed Riley.

Ray Riley—unrelated to Harry Riley—will succeed W. J. Carr, Los Angeles. Wakefield will replace M. B. Harris. The commission jobs draw salaries of $8,000 a year. Riley's salary as controller was $5,000.

New Street Light Asked Of Council

Residents of Chapel street presented a petition to the city council Monday night, asking for a street light on that street at the yards of the Sterling Lumber Company.

The matter was referred to the street lighting committee with full power to act. Councilman James K. Pierson also called to the committee's attention the need for re-location of the street light on Union street at Locust street.

YOUNGEST SOLON—Among representatives assembling at the opening of Congress Jan. 4, the person shown above is the youngest of them all. He is Representative Lyle H. Boren of Oklahoma, who will be 28 years old on May 11. A Democrat, he will not be lonely for his kind. The House will open with 335 Democrats, 88 Republicans and 12 of other political creeds.

City Garbage Fee Proposed

All Households To Be Assessed 50 Cents Per Month

Under the terms of an ordinance passed for first reading at the meeting of the city council Monday night, Placerville residents are to be charged 50 cents for a garbage pick-up service and a city garbage department is created.

The ordinance provides for a once-a-week pick-up service with a charge of 50 cents for a container holding thirty gallons or less of garbage. Beyond thirty-gallon capacity, and for other bulky materials such as papers, excelsior, there would be an additional charge.

And additional fifty cents would be charged for each collection other than or in addition to the once-a-week regular collection.

Under the terms of the proposed ordinance, the city may sell a concession for garbage hauling, or may operate its own garbage truck.

The ordinance also provides that any householder may dispose of his own garbage but that this shall not cancel or in any way affect the flat 50 cent charge for garbage service.

Now that happy thoughts have been exchanged, marking the passing of Christmas and the arrival of the new year, we return to stark realities and the reminder that city taxes are due not later than January 25.

We hadn't planned to disturb you with that thought for a few days yet, but we overheard a girl say that the ring she received for Christmas is turning green, so it's time we all got down to earth again.

If you have any ideas on the proposed municipal sewer project, pass them on to members of the city council.

Howdy, Chairman Bassi, and howdy, Supervisor Green.

The city has an ordinance setting up provisions for the elimination of radio interferences about the community, and creating the office of radio inspector. But it has no radio inspector.

Interested parties should contact Councilman Frost.

Charles MacLaughlin was in town Monday from Somerset.

A certificate of record at the courthouse tells of the marriage on January 2 of George Burnett, 36 of Placerville, and Carnella Smith, 19 of Sacramento, before Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis. It was Cupid's first conquest of the New Year.

2,000 BILLS FACE SOLONS

2 Houses On Congress Unite Tomorrow As F.D.R. Speaks

WASHINGTON (UP)—The 75th United States Congress convened for formal deliberations at 12:02 p. m. today.

Both Houses went into session at the identical moment of 12:02 p. m.

The first legislative business will be to amend the neutrality act to permit President Roosevelt to embargo munitions exports to war-torn Spain. This safeguard of peace may be rammed through this week.

House and Senate convened separately today. They meet jointly tomorrow to count presidential electoral votes and hear Mr. Roosevelt's annual message. On January 8 the President's budget message, almost inevitably forecasting another fat deficit, will be read to each House by clerks.

The President will be inaugurated January 20, first to take office under the 20th amendment to the Constitution which abolished the short or "Lame Duck" sessions of Congress and shifted the start of presidential and vice-presidential terms from March 4 to mid-winter.

House and Senate have agreed on organization routine. Congressional veterans predicted a session of five months or longer. Two thousand bills are ready for introduction. Party leaders remain the same as last session except that Rep. Sam Rayburn, bald, chunky Texan will be majority leader. Rep. William H. Bankhead of Alabama, was promoted to speaker in place of the late Joseph W. Byrnes of Tennessee, who died last session.

DEMOCRATS IN ASSEMBLY TAKE VICTORY SPOILS

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Organization maneuvers neared completion in the state legislature today with Democratic assemblymen continuing their determined drive to "control the show."

In power for the first time, the Bourbons swept out all Lower House officials who had handled important legislative detail in the past and replaced them with candidates of their own choosing.

The only important contest remained before bills start flowing over the desks of both Houses was the selection of a chief of the legislative counsel bureau.

Because Republicans were forced to sit back and watch gleeful Democrats celebrate complete control of the Lower House, there was some feeling that the Bourbons today would give in one point—they refused all attempts at arbitration during the opening day—and permit the retention of Fred Wood as legislative counsel.

Wood is experienced in a difficult job. Republicans and others believed his removal would handicap the smooth preparation and flow of bills.

A snarling pack of Cougars who defeated the Native Sons' quintet Monday night while Snowline's CCC five trimmed the American Legion outfit, now is perched on the top roost of the county basketball league.

The Cougars won, 42 to 12 over the Native Sons, which is the new banner of the quintet formerly in the league under the name of Duffy's Independents.

The Snowline-Legion tussle was the roughest, toughest and thrilling game of the night when the lads from Camp 999 coming home with a two-point margin, 24 to 22.

A record for something or other was established by the Twenty-Thirty Club members in defeating Mosquito, 61 to 15, with Reeg trying for a high-point record for the night and falling short by a few baskets.

League play continues next Monday night with the Cougars facing p-l-e-n-t-y of opposition in the American Legion team.

ZERO COLD MAY HALT EPIDEMIC IN MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO (UP)—Zero cold swept over the Midwest and into the East today to end unseasonable weather blamed for a nation-wide outbreak of influenza and pneumonia.

Chicago counted 500 dead in two weeks from respiratory infections resulting from warm, wet weather. Denver had 100 deaths, Detroit 48, Pittsburgh, 42.

The outbreak probably will stop after the return of normally cold weather, said Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, president of the Chicago Board of Health. Infections incurred over the week-end probably will continue to develop, however, and full benefits of the cold wave may not be felt for several days.

Government forecasters predicted a "severe cold wave" for the North Central states, with temperatures around zero in Nebraska, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Indiana. "Much colder" weather was predicted for New York, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Only snow in prospect appeared destined for the Great Lakes area. A foot of snow was reported in the Dakotas.

Camp Fire Girls Resume Meetings

The Iwa Camp Fire Girls held their regular meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rantz. Preparations for ordering ceremonial gowns were completed. The new officers of the organization are Eleanor Chalders, president; Betty Brimhall, vice-president; Ethyl Butler, secretary; Edith Thompson, treasurer and Virginia Rhodes, scribe.

Child Specialist To Be Here Jan. 6

Dr. Emmeline Banks, child specialist of the state health department, will be in Placerville at the grammar school on Wednesday, January 6, it was announced today by Mrs. Irene Larson, the school nurse. Parents who wish to confer with Dr. Banks should telephone Mrs. Larson, either at the school or at home, for an appointment.

CITY DEBATES TAX CHANGE

Levy For Year To Be Delinquent After January 25

Your city taxes are now due and payable and will be delinquent after January 25, the last Monday of the month, BUT—

Next year you may have the opportunity to divide your city tax payments into two installments, just as you do your county taxes and your irrigation district taxes.

The matter was brought before the city council Monday night by Mayor George E. Faugstad and all councilmen expressed the view that such an arrangement might be a great convenience to many residents.

City Attorney Maul was directed to prepare the way for such a change. Meanwhile, the taxes now due must be paid in full in one installment before the close of business January 25 to avoid delinquency.

Next year, it may be different.

License Fee Changes Seen

Council Moves Toward Repeal Of Section Under Contest

A new ordinance repealing sections 11 and 11½ of City Ordinance No. 648, relating to the form for licensing certain businesses in the city, and substituting therefore new sections, was introduced and passed at first reading before the city council on Monday night.

Section 11½ of Ordinance 648 has been contested and declared unconstitutional, while section 11 of the ordinance, it was the opinion of City Attorney Maul, was "needing some attention."

Another phase of the new ordinance assesses a license against the Pacific Gas and Electric Company for the sale and distribution of power amounting to $25 per quarter, and against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. for the operation of a telephone system amounting to $20 per quarter.

The license fee for trucks wholesaling in Placerville will, under the terms of the new ordinance, be as follows:

For goods in bulk, $10 per truck per quarter;

For bakery goods, $20 per truck per quarter;

For oil and gas, $20 per truck per quarter;

For dairy products, $20 per truck per quarter;

For tobaccos, $10 per truck per quarter.

The ordinance carries the provision that when a firm established in a local place of business is paying a business license fee equal to the amount of the fee proposed to be assessed above for one truck, then the proposed truck fee will not be assessed.

As an instance, a man selling cabbage in bulk might already be paying a $10 merchandise license on his local place of business. If he had two trucks wholesaling cabbage, his merchandise license would be presumed to entitle him to exemption from paying a fee on one of the trucks.

Diamond Springs Has 99 In School

Diamond Springs is pressing Camino school closely for the distinction of having the largest school enrollment in the rural county and, according to reports to Superintendent E. J. Fitzgerald, there are six more pupils now than were enrolled before the holidays, raising the total to 99.

Superintendent Fitzgerald is awaiting reports from Camino before deciding which of the two schools has the largest number of pupils enrolled. Prior to the Christmas vacation, Camino had the lead.

Charles Clark was a Monday visitor from El Dorado.

Now Is The Time

Now is the time for Placerville voters to contact their city councilmen and give their opinion on the proposed sewer bond election.

What can you do?
Will you vote for it and help to obtain the support of others for the project?

Does Placerville really want to improve its sewage disposal arrangements or is the city content to continue with the present plan with the feeling down in the heart that one of these days the city will be compelled to make the improvement?

Sometimes silence gives consent, but we think it would be a most unfortunate circumstance if the question of voting the bonds should be put to the voters and fail.

Every citizen should take a member of the city council by the lapel and speak his opinions on this important question.

Britain Anxious To Avoid War Outbreak

LONDON, (Copyright, 1937, By the United Press.)—Belief spread in diplomatic quarters today that Great Britain, anxious to dispel the threat of a European war, was more inclined to see a nationalist rather than a loyalist triumph in the Spanish civil war.

Despite protests to the nationalists over attacks on two British steamers, and the presence of a strong fleet in Spanish waters ready for action if necessary, it was said that British policy today tended toward expediting a climax in the civil war first, by tacitly assenting to Italian military intervention; secondly, by helping to maintain a smoke-screen of non-intervention efforts that would conceal efforts of Fascist nations to aid the nationalists.

Farm Advisor and Mrs. Ivan W. Lilley are spending this week at Berkeley where Mr. Lilley is attending the annual conference of Farm Advisors.

Twenty-Thirdians To Seat Officers

Mexican Revolt Is Fascist Prediction

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UP)—Ty Cobb, spikes high, hitting it into third. Jack Dempsey, the hammers clanging in his head, getting off the floor and going on to win.

Tilden, with match point against him, lashing out his cannon-ball for an ace.

Sande, lengths behind at the top of the stretch, booting and beating another one in.

Those are very fine examples of the spirit that's known as competitive. Some of you may think they constitute the finest samples of the flame that won't be quenched. But I don't and—even though it may constitute treason on the part of a sportswriter to say so—my vote for the group of men who have the fiercest competitive spirits would not be cast for the athletes.

Two days ago it would have been, but not now. For I have been in Daytona Beach and have observed some gentlemen whose spirits could spot those of athletes a ten-pound pull in the weights and romp home in a breeze. The gentlemen I refer to are politicians—the politicians who, even as I write this are engaged in a battle for the control of this city's town hall and government.

There are two groups and they really have been going at it. On Friday their zeal to win made them drag out Roscoes, gats, Tommy guns, typewriters and other forms of light artillery, and also four companies of rural militiamen whose tin hats didn't fit, but whose trigger fingers and eyes had been sharpened by years of knocking off quail on the fly. They even had the fire ladders out to wave their big canvas water snakes in a most sinister manner. Before the battle ends no one would be surprised to see the rival gentlemen resort to depth bombs, boiling oil, well poisoning, and thumb-screws.

What makes this spirit—this will to win—so amazing is the meagreness of the reward to the winner. Ty Cobb said for a banker's salary; Dempsey got off the floor to shoot for millions, and Sande rode for five figure purses.

But not these stout-hearted, unquenchable Daytona Beach politicians. Which every mayor wins will get only $150 a month pay, and the commissioners only a third of that. While $150 a month is not to be sneered at, it hardly constitutes the sort of money a man gets out his six-shooter to defend or win. If he got plugged it would take an entire year's pay to get vulcanized and out on the road again.

Of course, as some one has suggested, there is a bare possibility that there is more of a reward to mayoring and commissioning and city clerking and police chieftain than is visible to the naked eye of the uninitiated.

I for one, though, can't figure out what this could be. After all, the privilege of driving through red lights, parking by fire plugs, and making the main address on Arbor Day and the Fourth of July, aren't very substantial rewards. Neither is the right to go home to dinner behind a police escort which frightens the wits out of citizens on the highway.

Maybe I'd better stop this before some of you really believe I don't know why politicians politic with such great spirit. Because I do—they want the honor and the glory of naming the streets.

DRIVERS WARNED AGAINST CARBON MONOXIDE POISON

A danger, unseen, unnoticed, but very real, rides with the motorist during the winter months, Ray Ingels, director of the State Motor Vehicle Department, warned today.

This danger, Ingels explained, is carbon monoxide, an odorless, tasteless, but deadly gas, generated by the motor and swept back into the car or cab by the action of the motor's fan. Where floor boards are loose and windows are closed, there is no way for the gas to escape and the driver is poisoned, without his knowledge.

"Carbon monoxide," the director said, "undoubtedly is the cause of many so-called unexplainable accidents. To keep warm, the driver closed the windows, when he should have put on extra clothing; this subtle gas entered, had no way to escape, and the driver became unconscious.

"Driving with windows closed is inviting disaster," he declared. "Carbon monoxide is deadly and gives no warning. During the cold weather keep your car windows open and put on more clothing, to avoid the cold and this deadly gas."

YEAR '36 WAS BEST EVER FOR BANKING CHAIN

Bank of America National Trust & Savings Association has just completed the best year in its 32-year history. President L. M. Giannini announced today. Statements released at the year-end show that total resources have continued the marked upward trend that has characterized recent years, standing on December 31 at $1,430,300,000. Total deposits showed an increase of $143,700,000, a gain of 12.4 per cent for the year.

Earnings also showed continued improvement, totaling $22,522,000 for the year. During this period $8,000,000 was paid in dividends, $4,000,000 was allocated to reserves for depreciation and amortization, and $6,274,000 to reserves for contingencies, prior year's taxes, etc., and $4,156,000 was added to surplus and undivided profits. Earnings for 1936 represented an increase of 38.3 per cent over the amount earned in 1935, which was $16,276,000. Transamerica Corporation which owns 99.65 per cent of the bank's stock, received the bulk of the dividends paid.

In commenting on the bank's statement President Giannini said, "One of the significant features of the year's operation has been an expansion of all classes of loans to bring about a net increase of more than $81,067,000. A substantial portion of this increase has been accomplished through installment loans based on character and monthly income for the purpose of building small homes, purchasing automobiles, labor-saving equipment for the home and for other personal purposes. In addition there has been a marked expansion in the demand for commercial credits. This has been particularly noticeable during the latter part of the year.

"It is also significant," said Giannini, "that the Bank of America has further expanded its statewide facilities during the year and has rounded out its organization through the addition of 44 new branches, bringing the total number to 475 branches in 294 California communities. Of these branches nine are operated by the Bank of America (California), the associated state bank, with total resources of $29,540,000 and earnings for the year of more than $930,000."

President Roosevelt said he would move at once to urge Congress to change the neutrality law.

NON-EXPLOSIVE ETHER HAILED AS NEW SURGERY CONTRIBUTION

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Development of a non-explosive ether by a middle-aged Los Angeles physician is hailed by medical men as the most important contribution in the field of anesthetics in a half century.

The scientist, Dr. Garnet King, cautiously admitted his experiments in perfecting a non-explosive ether seemed successful and disclosed that his findings now were available to 25,000 physicians for experimental trials.

Dr. King also disclosed that he and his wife had used themselves as "Guinea pigs" in preliminary tests of the anesthetic before they made it public to the medical profession.

"All I did was devise a method for pre-heating ether before it is drawn into the lungs of the patient," he said. "The procedure is based on a principle sought since 1876.

"Explosions now are impossible and there can be no ether-pneumonia or nausea after the operation. In the past, use of ether often was followed by complications more dangerous than the original illness."

Dr. King explained that ether is recognized as superior to any other type of anesthetic because it gave such a wide margin of surgical anesthesia. The physician said he became determined to develop a successful method of administering ether after watching doctors operate on patients without any anesthetic during the World War.

He served as a stretcher bearer for the Royal British Medical Corps during the war and saw duty in Mesopotamia and India.

After being shell-shocked in the war, Dr. King was discharged from a military hospital at Deolali, India, suffering from chronic malaria and amoebic dysentery.

Despite his poor health, he completed his medical education at the University of Physicians and Surgeons in Kansas City and then worked in hospitals on the Pacific Coast.

Several years ago he was forced to give up active medical work because of recurrence of his wartime ailments.

Dr. King's device for pre-heating ether is a simple container which is enclosed in a hot water jacket.

"It looks simple but it works," he said. "In one operation here a woman was under ether for more than two hours. Fifteen minutes after the operation she asked for something to read."

The physician said he tried his anesthetic ideas on himself and his wife "about 30 times" before he was convinced he had found a method to administer the ether that was safe and practical.
